

On May 10 children of Sunday school prepared the program for elderly people.

Our elderly brothers and sisters took places behind the covered little tables.

Children from Sunday school sat in front of them.

Adults shared memories about their childhood which took place in military years for most of Children participated in competitions.

Meeting of generations

Last Updated Monday, 21 December 2015 18:50

Joint competitions were held.

There was also a competition on the best pastries.

It was pleasant to our elderly brothers and sisters to spend time with children.

Children could also learn a lot of interesting and receive blessing from this meeting.