

On August 5 we had been visited by doctors.

All of them are Christians who came from the different cities to serve us.

The following experts conducted reception, therapist, pediatrician, oculist and sportsologist.

It was also possible to pass an ECG and make blood and urine tests.

There were about 50 patients

Most of them are members of our families and our acquaintances who aren't parishioners of our

