

On January, 10th the group of Sunday school "Rainbow" made a walk to the forest.

Christmas holidays have quickly passed by. Vacation already comes to an end. This time it will be possible to remember many the interesting moments. Children attending the Sunday school not only had a rest, but also could prepare very interesting Christmas performance "It came as the stranger". Their teachers also had to work, to organize many rehearsal, to write down soundtracks, to prepare suits. Besides, they prepared the interesting Christmas program for children.

On January, 9th the teacher of Sunday school group "Rainbow" Valentine Solovyova declared: "Tomorrow we will go for a walk!" It is easy to guess, children were delighted, having heard about such interesting action. On Sunday service it has been declared about walking, all interested persons: both adults, and children were invited to join also.

In spite of the fact that in the morning on January, 10th the weather become warmer, snow started to melt and even the small rain started, it is frightened off nobody. With pleasure and triumph we went to wood, taking a potato, sausages and other things.

through the forest, the children found a large pile of sticks and branches, and they used them to build a large bonfire. The children were very happy to see the fire, and they all stood around it for a while.

While the children were playing, a large pile of sticks and branches was found. The children were very happy to see the fire, and they all stood around it for a while.

Being in the snow and enjoying the day was a great experience for the children. They were all very happy and enjoyed the time spent in the forest. The children were all very active and enjoyed the time spent in the forest. The children were all very happy and enjoyed the time spent in the forest.

Download all photos of page 32 - 410 from WebFile.RU