

On April 1 the youth visited the aged people of our church again.

The idea to visit elderly people was born last year. After all they need special care. For our aged men and the aged women it is sometimes very difficult to go to shop, to clean the apartment and if something broke - it is trouble. But the youth will consult with it in no time.

This time la Pavlova invited young people. The youth with pleasure accepted invitations and, without postponing, at once started to put things in order: washed a bath, cleaned the apartment, sisters wiped a dust on cases, brothers cleaned carpets.

Ia Pavlova didn't sit idle - she prepared tea, sweets for guests.

During communication and tea drinking there were conversations on the most different subjects. The youth told about themselves. Iya Pavlova remembered her life: she told about war, about how once, having seen the plane flying by over Udomlya, she hid in a nettle.

The Lord always and everywhere kept la Pavlova - she lived a long and interesting life. For youth it was the big example.

As it is fine to observe in church such close communication between representatives of different generations. The church is a family where all people love and care about each other. So pleasantly once from the Lord to hear such words: "Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me" (Matthew 25:36).
