

It was a subject at family fellowship we had on March 9.

This day married couples of our church had opportunity to gather for fellowship. Husbands and wives took places behind festively decorated little tables.

At a meeting there were about twenty married couples. Besides, we invited some more families from other churches of our area.

We were visited by a family of Grabants from Tver and Villachevs from Vyshny Volochyok.

Korovin from Bezhetsk and Bulbotka from Vyshny Volochyok.

And also some more married couples from Vyshny Volochyok Baptist church.

We talked for hours about our life, various discussions. Husbands and wives told many interesting
