

On November 13, our church celebrated its thirtieth anniversary

Guests from churches of the Tver region came to us.

We were praising the Lord together with the glorification group.

They also performed singing.

The pastor of the Tyer Baptist church, Sergey Volkov, preached

After the service, the Tyer Baptist church members gathered at the festive table. And on the following day, the church members gathered to celebrate.