

Dear Friend, Even as you read this, the death toll on Maui is rising as workers continue to find victims of the deadliest U.S. wildfire in a century.

The island is reeling, and these wildfires have decimated the city of Lahaina and other areas, leaving many homeless and hopeless.

There is great loss, grief, and need, and they need your prayers.

Chaplains with the Billy Graham Rapid Response Team have deployed to Maui to provide emotional and spiritual care to those who have lost everything.

Please lift up the thousands of suffering people on the island, as well as our chaplains as they minister there in the coming weeks. Pray that many would find true hope in Jesus Christ.

May God richly bless you, Franklin Graham
