

A teacher is one of the most difficult and noble professions.

In the year of the teacher and mentor, we pay special attention to people of this profession and continue to talk about Udomlya teachers and educators.

Today, the teacher of history and social studies of the school No. 1 named after A.S. Popov, a former graduate of this school, Ksenia Kudryashova, is in the frame. A young, energetic favorite of the students.